

Heaven on Earth ~ Write & Ride Retreat

May 18-24, 2025

A Call for Writers & Horse Lovers

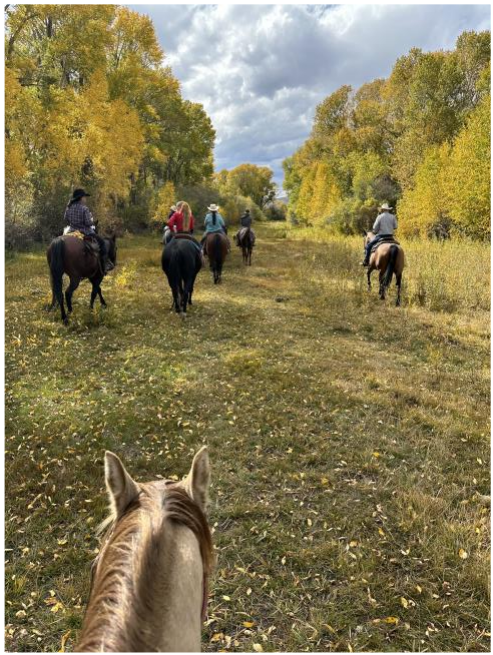

Multi-published author, long-time artist, and passionate horse-lover, Jayme H. Mansfield, invites you to join her for a slice of heaven at the Write & Ride Retreat!

For six nights and seven days at the Vee Bar historic Wyoming guest ranch, we'll write, ride horses, breathe a little deeper and smile a lot wider!

Jayme is proof that the ranch, located in the breathtaking Centennial Valley 20 miles west of Laramie, is life-changing as it spurs creative passions beyond measure.

She's been leading art retreats at the ranch for the past three years and figured the time is ripe to add a special getaway for fellow writers. After all, writers need time, space, inspiration, and encouragement from a community of word lovers to release the literary muse.

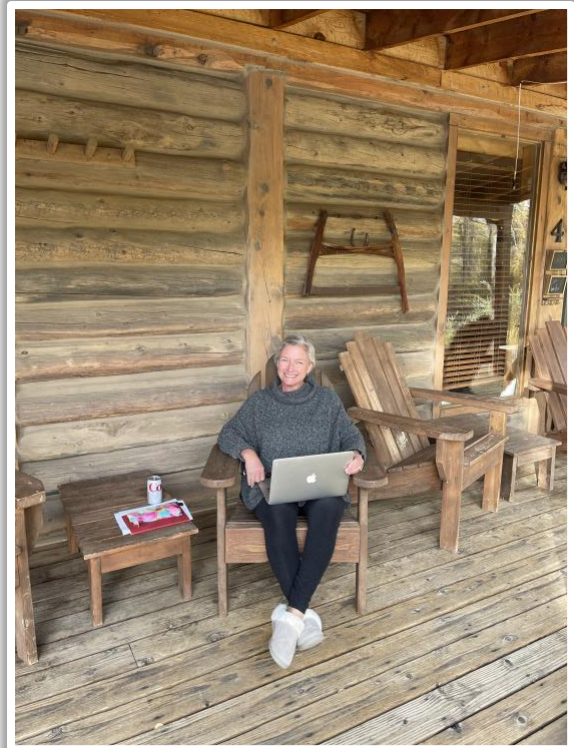

Heavenly Horse Time

The Vee Bar Ranch family and wranglers know their horses! Based on your level of riding and horse experience (all levels welcome), you'll become best buds with the perfect horse who will journey with you through grassy meadows and rivers, along mountain paths, herd cows and calves, and partner for good ol' Western fun and games. We'll ride each day in sunshine or snow (yes, the weather does what it does, especially at 8,000 ft. elevation), and bask in the spectacular spring colors.

Inspired Personal and Instructive Writing Time

Pretty much every view stirs the creative soul! Whether you are a seasoned author, a writer-in-progress, or simply passionate about literary expression and love to read and chat with others about the writing process, you'll be immersed in creative inspiration. Gift yourself a peaceful and motivating experience to write, reflect, and refresh.

Over the course of your stay, you'll receive group and personal writing inspiration and instruction from Jayme and other literary lovers. Whether your goal is to make strides on a work in progress, chat about publication options, dream and muse about upcoming pieces, or simply bask in the enticing world of words, you'll be in heaven.

Relaxation & Reflection Time

I can attest there's something extra special about the ranch ~ it's a place where you breathe differently and wear a silly grin. Perhaps it's the mixture of fresh air and sunshine, the sound of the river just a stone's throw away, the whinnying of horses in the nearby meadows, Western hospitality like no other, the most delicious meals this side of the Mississippi, and friends made for a lifetime ... so much that my husband, James, and I live here full time! After all, we found our heaven on earth. Come enjoy with us!
